Making God known and loved by humbly and joyfully sharing our gifts, spreading the Gospel, celebrating the Sacraments, and trusting Jesus using the Little Way of St. Therese

MARCH 29, 2026

"Hosana to the Son of David!"

Palm Sunday quietly reminds us that the same lips that shout "Hosanna" can soon echo "Crucify him." We celebrate Jesus when our faith feels inspiring, but sometimes we drift away when it demands more from us. Today, let's remember when Christ entered Jerusalem, not to claim power, but to show love through sacrifice, choosing humility over comfort and truth over image. For young adults feeling pressure to perform, fit in, or present a perfect life, Jesus' humility shines as a guiding light, encouraging us to find strength in simplicity and genuine self-gift. With the loving example of the Blessed Mother, who "kept all these words, pondering them in her heart" (Lk. 2:19), let's walk with Jesus through Holy Week, looking forward to the joy of Easter.
