

Third Sunday of Lent

“Give me a drink” (Jn. 4:17)

Today’s gospel shares the story of Jesus meeting the woman at the well (Jn. 4:5-42). When He asks her for a drink, it means more than just being thirsty. It shows that God wants to be close to us, wherever we are in life. God’s love finds us, lifts us up, gives us hope, and renews our faith. All God asks is that we respond. As we move through Lent this week, let’s try to answer God’s invitation, just like the woman at the well.

May you have a blessed week!

Fr. Michael

AFTER ALL MASSES

Bethlehem Handicrafts is honored to present a remarkable collection of hand-crafted olive wood carvings and gifts from the Holy Land after each Mass.

Our Christian artisans pour their hearts and souls into creating these pieces, statues, crosses, and rosaries to keep our faith alive in the Holy Land. Each creation is a labor of love, a testament to their devotion and the rich heritage of our faith.

By purchasing one of these beautiful items, you are not just bringing a beautiful piece of Bethlehem into your home; you are also providing necessary support to Christian families in the Holy Land who are facing tremendous challenges. Your contribution helps them stay in their homes and preserves the sanctity of our Holy sites and shrines.

By purchasing our items, you are directly supporting the future of Christians in the Holy Land!

4th Sorrowful Mystery- the Carrying of the Cross

"So they took Jesus, and carrying the cross himself he went out to what is called the Place of the Skull, in Hebrew, Golgotha." John 19:16b-17

I think most of us can relate to carrying a(many) cross(s) or a(many) burden(s) in life.

Whether it be a physical, mental or spiritual pain/burden, we have carried one or many in our lives. Who do you turn to in those times? Sometimes we have family, friends or a spiritual person to help us. (Think of Simon the Cyrenian who Jesus allowed to help carry His cross). Sometimes we feel like we have to do it on our own. But you are never alone. As the last Stanza of the poem "Footprints in the Sand" says,

"He whispered, 'My precious child, I love you and will never leave you Never, ever, during your trials and testings.

When you saw only one set of footprints, It was then that I carried you."

Pray to the Lord when you are heavily burdened and he will carry you. Rose Wertz
