Making God known and loved by humbly and joyfully sharing our gifts, spreading the Gospel, celebrating the Sacraments, and trusting Jesus using the Little Way of St. Therese

MAY 17, 2026

The Ascension of the Lord and the Little Way

Before ascending into heaven, Jesus did not leave His disciples with fear, but with a mission and a promise. Today, we hear of the Apostles standing looking toward the sky, yet the angels gently remind them that the Christian life is not spent standing still.

Christ sends His disciples into the world to be witnesses of His love, mercy, and resurrection. We too, are called to live that mission in simple, faithful ways each day. Through the Little Way of trust, kindness, prayer, and joyful sacrifice, we become witnesses to Christ in our homes, workplaces, and parish. Jesus has not abandoned us—He remains with His Church and strengthens us through the Holy Spirit.

May you have a blessed week!

Fr. Michael
